Election/Restrictions

1. In response to the species election requirement, Applicant elected without traverse the species of Fig. 1, but did not elect the sub-species as required. In a telephonic interview with Applicant's attorney, Mr. Eric Cohen on 6/21/2005, it was agreed that since independent claim 1 is not allowable at this stage, a prior art rejection will be given at this time, and Applicant will have the opportunity to make a sub-species election, indicate the claims reading on said sub-species, and possibly amend the claims in response to the present Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 3, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The following critical limitations to the understanding of the claims could not be understood and related to the invention as disclosed: in claim 3 "near rotor"; in claim 5, "first and second tails are formed in each rotor", Applicant did not disclose that one rotor has different first and second tails; in claim 7, "a transformed tail", transformed - relative to what?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Carig 3369361, that teaches the invention in Fig. 2, as disclosed and as claimed: a jet engine producing thrust, col 2, ll. 67-71, comprising an inherent body, a compressor 31, a burner 32, a turbine 33, and an exhaust compressor 16. Low and high pressure turbines are read on the first and last stages of turbine 33. Note that from thermodynamic considerations, the diameter of the exhaust compressor (the claimed fan) is equal to the diameter of the last stage of the low pressure turbine, otherwise loss of fluid energy is incurred through fluid expansion. It is noted that the claimed invention is old and known as "inverted Brayton" engine. Subclass 60/39.41 is but one place where Applicant can find relevant prior art.
